Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurWITH AN INTRODUCTION BY DIRECTOR JANE CAMPIONJohn Keats died in penury and relative obscurity in 1821, aged only 25. He is now seen as one of the greatest English poets and a genius of the Romantic age. This collection, which contains all his most memorable works and a selection of his letters, is a feast for the senses, displaying Keats' gift for gorgeous imagery and sensuous language, his passionate devotion to beauty, as well as some of the most moving love poetry ever written.Revue de presse"Littered with sensuous descriptions of nature's beauty, Keats's odes also pose profound philosophical questions" (Sunday Telegraph)"Sublime" (Sunday Times)"In what we call natural magic, he ranks with Shakespeare...no-one else in English poetry has...his perception of loveliness" (Matthew Arnold)"One of the half-dozen greatest English writers" (Edmund Wilson)"His letters are certainly the most notable and most important ever written by any English poet" (T.S. Eliot)Prsentation de l'diteurWITH AN INTRODUCTION BY DIRECTOR JANE CAMPIONJohn Keats died in penury and relative obscurity in 1821, aged only 25.
