the last Dynasty of China and the early 20th Century which is profusely illustrated. It is an excellent book for any collector or person interested in this field. Highly recommended. This book doesn't repeat information which has been previously published but gives a fresh view. -- Dr. John K. Fong "arts fan" (United States) - See all my reviews Keep forgetting to tell you how good I think your last book is. There was a real need for a really complete book on the subject and you did it and did it so well. -- Beverley Jackson, author, 24/4/08

Valery Garrett shows in her clever and generously illustrated outline running all the way back to 1644 --Saturday March 15, 2008 The Guardian Chinese Dress, by Valery Garrett (240pp, Tuttle, 45)
